

FOLLY OF HOARDING WEALTH

Absurd it is to hoard up wealth,
 'Tis folly to retain it,
For could it consolation give,
 Ye long cannot maintain it.
Man thou must die thou know'st well,
 Wealth cannot time extend,
Thou must give up that thou dost crave,
 For other folks to spend.